Can I Get My Employer Cover My Plan

A Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) is a tax-advantaged benefit that allows both employees and employers to save on the cost of healthcare as employer-funded medical reimbursement plans. The employer sets aside a specific amount of pre-tax dollars for employees to pay for health care expenses on an annual basis. Based on the plan design, HRAs can generate significant savings in overall health benefits. HRAs may be designed in many fashions to suit the specific needs of employers and employees alike. It is one of the most flexible types of employee benefits plans, making it very attractive to most employers.

Depending on the plan design, expenses that may be reimbursed from the HRA include the following: Novus insurance premiums, deductibles, co-payments, co-insurance, prescription medications, vision expenses, dental expenses, and other out-of-pocket health-related expenses.
